

White Wines	Bottle & Vintage	1/2 Litre	175ml
Trebbiano Lovely, simple, soft, gulping wine from the Adriatic coast of Italy.	£14.50 2010	£11.00	£3.90
Sauvignon Blanc / Chenin Blanc The high altitude vineyards of Mendoza produce attractive and approachable great value wines. The blend is dominated by the floral characteristics of the Sauvignon grape with a slight lemony finish.	£15.60 2010	£11.70	£4.20
Chardonnay Soft, unoaked and intensely fruity Chilean Chardonnay. A full flavoured wine that will be a good match to accompany your meal.	£16.30 2011	£12.20	£4.40
Pinot Grigio / Garganega Dry, fruity, mineraly Italian blend with an attractive floral nose. Makes a great aperitif but has enough character to accompany food well.	£17.40 2011	£12.90	£4.70
Nico A delightful, light and fresh drink from Portugal with aromatic overtones.	£18.20 2010
Riesling / Gewurtztraminer (Oben Grove) A blend of two varieties with a reputation for producing delightful aromatic wines. This is a fairly full flavoured wine that can accompany more robust flavours than most white wines.	£19.00 2009
Viognier (Château La Bastide) This wine from the south of France is the one to go for if you often find whites too tart. A full, rounded and peachy wine.	£20.00 2010
Gavi (La Battistina) Italian chic, attractive fresh, balanced and fruity, made from the Cortese grape native to the area around Gavi.	£24.00 2011
Sauvignon Blanc (Fault Line) New Zealand Sauvignon has taken the world by storm with its crisp and clean palate with spicy fruit flavours. This example is really well balanced and will be a much better match for food than the other Sauvignon we stock.	£24.50 2011

Champagne & Sparkling Wine	Bottle
Joseph Perrier N.V. Full flavoured, classy Champagne from a highly respected house.	£40.00
Prosecco A fresh, fruity Italian Presecco with soft and creamy bubbles.	£25.00
Cava Across the world Chardonnay makes the lightest and most elegant sparkling wines and this blend is Codorniu's Chardonnay based upmarket label.	Mini Bottle 20cl £6.00

Rosé Wine	Bottle & Vintage	1/2 Litre	175ml
Merlot Rosé A fresh rose reminiscent of summer fruits from Chile	£15.00 2011	£11.30	£4.10

Sherry Try one of our chilled Spanish Sherries with Tapas

Long recommended by wine writers and increasingly by top chefs, Sherry is some of the most striking wine available and comes in many styles; most of which are naturally dry.

Manzanilla (very dry)	Glass (75ml) £3.50
Fino, Tio Pepe (crisp and dry)
Oloroso (full and dry)

Sherry by the Bottle; great value and fresher wine (40% off) Bottle
£18.00

Red Wines	Bottle & Vintage	1/2 Litre	175ml
Nero d'Avola Made in Sicily from the Nero d'Avola grape. It is medium to full in weight with soft tannins and the aromas of rich, ripe, dark fruit.	£14.50 2010	£11.00	£3.90
Garnacha Barsao make a light, soft and fruity wine, from this grape - one of the principle varieties used in Rioja.	£15.50 2010	£11.60	£4.20
Antina A blend including Cabernet Sauvignon and Tempranillo from Spain. Rich and rounded with a touch of oak.	£16.30 2010	£12.20	£4.40
Outrider A blend of three classic grape varieties of Australia; Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz. Full of fruit and spice flavours.	£17.60 2009	£13.00	£4.70
Carmenère Carmenère; Chile's signature grape, traditionally mistaken for Merlot. Deep and spicy with cherry flavours.	£18.50 2009
Malbec (Organic - Michel Torino) Argentina is renowned for its deep fruity Malbec; this example does exactly that.	£19.50 2011
Merlot (Echeverria) Smooth and round with intense dark fruit from Curico Valley, Chile.	£19.80 2010
Pinot Noir (Carmen Reserva) Pinot is famous for the wines of Burgundy but increasingly produces light wines with great aromas from other cool climates (this one is from Chile). The flavours of smooth light red fruit lingers on the palate.	£21.50 2010
Shiraz (Burton Vineyards, Metal Black) Classy Shiraz with well defined structure and deep lingering flavours.	£23.00 2010
Valpolicella (Allegrini) A top tip from wine writers is to look out for the growers of the wine not just where it comes from. Allegrini has a very good reputation in Valpolicella producing excellent fruit, balance, depth and intensity with smoothness on the palate.	£25.00 2010		